Numb. 8658.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 14, to Saturday July 18, 1747.

Bruſſels, July 19, N. S.

IT is reported the Spaniſh Army has paſſed the Var, and the Advance Guard of that of M. de Belleiſle, which marched by St. Remo and Oneglia, was arrived on the Genoeſe Territories; and the reſt of his Army had taken the Route of Piedmont. It is alſo ſaid, the Neapolitan Troops were in Motion, in order to act with thoſe of France and Spain.

Fluſhing, July 22, N. S. The Trenches were opened before Bergen-op-Zoom in the Night between the 13th and 14th Inſtant. In the Night between the 16th and 17th, a Sally was made with very indifferent Succeſs, for the Troops employed upon that Service fell into Diſorder. Upon the 19th the Enemy had finiſhed a Parallel from the Sea on one Side to the Cauſey of Woſe, which terminates the Inundation that covers the Lines on the other. Upon the 20th, at Day Break, the Beſiegers begun their Firing from three Batteries of Cannon and two of Mortars. About Eight o'Clock that Morning the Church was ſet on Fire by the Bombs or Carcaſſes, and is burnt to the Ground. Since that Time moſt of the Bombs are aim'd at the Batteries of the Place, but with no great Effect, as Yeſterday Noon not one Gun had been diſmounted.

Head Quarters at Rycholt, July 24, N. S. The Allied Army has made no conſiderable Motion ſince the Departure of Prince Waldeck, who is marched with a conſiderable Detachment, and a Train of Artillery, to reinforce the Army aſſembling on the Brabant Frontier of Holland; for which Service are likewiſe deſtined the 3000 Heſſians, and the Troops of Wurtzbourg. Prince Waldeck paſſed the Meuſe Yeſterday at Venlo, ſo that he will be at Boiſleduc by the 26th. General Trips, with his Corps, is advanced beyond Liege, and his former Poſt at Viſet is now occupied by a Detachment of 2000 Men, under a Brigadier from the Army. The Intrenchment which we have been working at for ſome Days paſt, from Liechtenberg to the Jaar, is now finiſhed, and ſeveral Batteries are erected upon it. A Lieutenant General from the Army with twelve Battalions and eight Squadrons are encamped behind it, by which Means the Fort of St. Peter's is quite cover'd.

The Enemy have made ſeveral Alterations in the Poſition of their detached Corps ſince Prince Waldeck marched from hence. Comte St. Germain, with his Corps of 10,000 Men, is marched toward Bergen-op-Zoom, to reinforce M. de Lowendahl; and the Comte de Clermont is advanced nearer the River, in order to ſecure the Poſts on the Meuſe, which the other occupied before, though his Poſition is ſomewhat different, as he has his Right towards Roeſmeer, and his Left, towards the River, advanced before Lonaken. The Comte d'Etrees has been reinforced conſiderably, ſo that his Corps is not much leſs at preſent than 18,000 Men, who are ſtrongly intrenched towards Liechtenberg; he has ſeveral ſmall Bodies encamped along the Meuſe to Liege, at the Bruſſels Gate of which Town he has a Guard, as we have at the Viſet Gate. The Enemy are preparing to make a Motion to their Right; their Quarter-maſters have already marked a Camp towards Liege; and it is ſaid the French King will have his Head Quarters at Hamal, and Marſhal Saxe at Tongres.

We have thrown another Bridge over the Meuſe this Day, below Maeſtricht, ſo that there are now three, beſides that of the Town.

The Enemy has been obliged to make a conſiderable Detachment of Cavalry and Irregulars towards Huy, to check the Excurſions of our Huſſars, who go even to the Gates of that Place.

Hague, July 21, N. S. Letters received this Evening from Bergen-op-Zoom mention, that the French were battering that Town with Red-hot Bullets, and had ſet it on Fire in ſeveral Places.

Hague, July 25, N. S. By the laſt Accounts from Bergen-op-Zoom, a great Part of the Town was burnt to the Ground. The Enemy's Approaches to that Town are in two Places; the firſt Attack is againſt the Gate of Woſe, and the other towards the Kyck en de Pot; but we do not hear that they have yet made any great Progreſs. By the Letters received this Evening of the 24th Inſtant from Bergen-op-Zoom, the Prince of Saxe Hildburghauſen was returned to his Command in the Lines. The ſame Letters mention, that four or five of the Enemy's Magazines had been blown up, and that a great Firing was heard towards Steenbergen, where it was imagined the French were making an Attack to divide our Forces in the Lines. All the Country about Willemſtadt is laid under Water, and the neceſſary Precautions are taken to put that Place in a proper State of Defence. The Prince of Orange and the Princeſs Royal ſet out Yeſterday Morning for Utrecht, where his Highneſs is to be inſtalled Stadtholder of that Province. They are expected again at the Hague next Friday, their Journey to Overyſſel being put off for ſome Time. The Greffier Fagel and M. Bentinck have both the Honour to accompany their Highneſſes.

Whereas Jeremiah Curtis, otherwiſe Alexander Pollard, of Hawkhurſt, in the County of Kent, Labourer, a notorious Smugler, who was confined in his Majeſty's Goal of Newgate, for being aſſembled, with divers other Perſons, armed with Fire arms, or other offenſive Weapons, in order to be aiding and aſſiſting in the clandeſtine Running of Goods, did, early Yeſterday Morning break the ſaid Goal, and make his Eſcape, in Company with three other Perſons, who were likewiſe Priſoners in the ſaid Goal for Capital Offences; This is to give Notice, that whoever ſhall retake the ſaid Curtis, otherwiſe Pollard, and bring him back to his Majeſty's Goal of Newgate, or any other of his Majeſty's Goals or Places of ſafe Cuſtody, ſo that he may be brought to Juſtice for the ſaid Offence, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive a Reward of One hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Receiver General and Caſhire of the Cuſtoms. By Order of the Commiſſioners,

Wm. Wood, Secr.

NB. The ſaid Jeremiah Curtis, otherwiſe Pollard, is upwards of Thirty Years of Age, a tall thin Man, about five Foot ten Inches high, of a fair Complexion, wears a light colour'd Peruke, and his Beard ſomewhat reddiſh.

London General Poſt Office, July 17, 1747.

Whereas William Bibbie, one of the Perſons concerned in the Robbery of the Cheſter Mail on the 22d Day of April laſt, and who eſcaped out of Newgate on Friday the 10th Inſtant, was killed this Morning by a Fall, in attempting to get over ſome Paling into a Stone-cutters Yard in Church-lane, near Whitechapel Church:

This is to give Notice, that whoever ſhall apprehend Thomas Bibbie, (the other Perſon concerned in the ſaid Robbery, and who eſcaped with the ſaid William Bibbie and others) and ſhall bring the ſaid Thomas Bibbie back to his Majeſty's ſaid Goal of Newgate, or any other other of his Majesty's Goals or Places of safe Custody, so that he be brought to Justice for the said Offence, such Person or Persons will be intitled to a Reward of One Hundred Pounds.

By Command of the Postmaster General,

N. B. The said Thomas Bibbie is about Twenty five Years of Age, about five Foot eight Inches high, a thinnish Man, of a fair Complexion, a sharp Nose, wide Nostrils, full Eyes, and out-mouthed, large Cheek Bones, and thin-faced downwards.

War-Office, July 10, 1747.

This is to give Notice, that his Majesty hath been pleased, by an Act of Parliament, intitled, An Act for the King's most Gracious, General, and Free Pardon, passed the last Session of Parliament, to pardon all such Persons who had, since the 25th of December 1743, deserted from his Majesty's Land Service, and shall, on or before the 1st Day of November next, return to his Majesty's Service in the Regiment, Troop or Company to which they did belong at the respective Times of such Desertion.

London, July 17, 1747.

Whereas Thomas Bibbie, Jeremiah Curtis, otherwise Pollard, otherwise Yarmouth Charles, and William Crosby, otherwise Cox, otherwise Courtney, otherwise Godfrey, broke out of Newgate, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Morning of Friday the 10th Instant; the said Thomas Bibbie is about 25 Years of Age, about five Foot eight Inches high, a thinnish Man, of a fair Complexion, a sharp Nose, wide Nostrils, full Eyes, and out-mouthed, large Cheek Bones, and thin-faced downwards. The said Jeremiah Curtis is upwards of thirty Years of Age, a tall thin Man, about five Foot ten Inches high, of a fair Complexion, wears a light-colour'd Peruke, and his Beard somewhat reddish, has been a Smuggler, and came from Hawkhurst in Kent. And the said William Crosbie is about 22 or 23 Years of Age, about five Foot eight Inches high, of a fair Complexion, wears his own light brown Hair tied up behind, lately brought from Exeter, and charged with forging several Bills of Exchange. Whoever shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, all or any of the above Persons, so as he or they may be brought to Justice, shall receive a Reward of Fifty Pounds for each and every of them. To be paid by me,

N. B. William Bibbie, who escaped out of Newgate in Company with the three Persons above-described, was killed by a Fall this Morning, which is the Reason his Name is left out of this Advertisement.

London, July 18, 1747.
